NEW OFFICES TO BE TAKEN BY STRATHCONA.

The Municipal Offices Will Be Moved from Douglas Block to the Old Strathcona Temple Building.

The Strathcona aldermen had a lengthy session last evening, at which a number of items of interest came up for consideration. Among these was the decision to remove the entire department—after the adoption of the principle of granting a salary to next year's mayor.

There was a full attendance of members.

Communications.

Communications were read from the following:

Stratford Brewing & Maltling Co., asking for a reduced rate, similar to that given to the C.P.R., or a flat rate.

A. Connally, making a charge against the poundkeeper that he refused to impound cows found in the vicinity of his home.

Joseph Beauchamp, asking for a lower rate for his hotel lighting.

Edmonton Incline Railway Company, stating that they would not require a franchise for their building.

David Ewing, power-house engineer, asking for a franchise to extend his residence and power-house, also free water, fuel and light.

M. Bell, asking for a franchise to extend the streetcar line by the fire and light committee.

The request of the Strathcona Company, stating that they would not require a franchise for their building.

They were given a flat rate, as they were going to install steam.

David Ewing, power-house engineer, asking for a franchise to extend his residence and power-house, also free water, fuel and light.

Edmonton Incline Railway Company, stating that they would not require a franchise for their building.

David Ewing, power-house engineer, asking for a franchise to extend his residence and power-house, also free water, fuel and light.

With reference to the letter of Mr. Connally, protesting against the cows at large near his residence, the Mayor and several aldermen were present.

The letter was referred to the committee on by-laws, in order to devise further legislation.

Edmonton Incline Railway Company, seconded by Alderman McFarlane and seconded by Alderman Hubert, that the change be left to the committee on by-laws.

The request of the Strathcona Company and Mining Company for changes was referred to the Sewer and Water Committee, and the letter of David Ewing to the fire and light committee.

Other communications, including some with reference to accounts due were read.

Can't Have Earlier Meeting.

The Mayor stated that owing to the fact that there were no earlier meetings than next Friday night, he had been making inquiries, and as far as he could learn, it would be impossible to have the building ready before Monday night.

Delegations Heard.

Dr. J. F. Wainwright had been with the president, J. F. Weir, on behalf of a communication addressed to the committee on by-laws, in regard to the new Oddfellows Temple.

It had now been offered for several rooms, and it is the desire of the committee to offer it to the Oddfellows.

William Vogel appeared with reference to what he claimed were some gross irregularities in the building.

His complaint was referred to the assessor to report at next meeting of the council.

Proposed New Offices.

The special committee on the offer of the old Strathcona Building Committee for new city offices in the new hall reported, referring the committee on by-laws.

The proposition was considered.

The proposition submitted involved several rooms at a rental of $100 a month, and the committee recommended a lease of one to five years would be granted.

Others thought that the present quarters were absolutely unsafe for the documents of the city, all of which would be exposed to the public.

Many of the present room, he said, were absolutely death traps, and the rooms could not be heated with stoves, as at present, in winter.

Alderman McNamee said that the owners of the present offices were not in a position to give a guarantee that they should stay their year, till next March, or pay the rent up.

The Mayor said it was absolutely necessary either to build a vault here or get one elsewhere, and the committee on by-laws—a valuable document—was left every night exposed to fire.

The question of placing a vault in the Westgate was also considered, Dr. Wainwright stating that with a vault 15 for a vault, and that a vault could be installed for about $250.

The Mayor said it was absolutely necessary either to build a vault here or get one elsewhere, and the committee on by-laws—a valuable document—was left every night exposed to fire.

To Engage New Room.

A motion was carried, from whom reports were asked, gave the stereotyped "progress" report.

The Mayor reported in favor of the principle of paying a salary to the Mayor.

The city engineer reported on the cost of the new sidewalk, the total cost being $1,000, the right-of-way $300.

A PROTECTION "HANDICAP."

Australia is tackling a new problem in the protection hand-book—how to make the protected manufacturer pay extra for his protection. That will be found to be a problem requiring solution at all in a severe commentary on the common line or argument of the protectionists. Ordinarily, the argument runs something like this: If the manufacturers are protected by a tariff, they will be able to sell what he will be able to pay better wages to his employees; therefore the employees will be able to purchase more goods, and hence everybody will be benefited. The manufacturer is made a kind of a superman, placed above the industrial and commercial worlds revolves. If he is hard run his employees will be poorly paid, and the farmer's home market dwindle; if he is made prosperous at the expense of the entire nation, then in turn we will have somebody else poor person. Much length is the theory carried that a nation can make itself wealthy by taxing itself to enrich one class of its citizens.

Australia has discovered, however, that the argument does not hold water and joint protection enables the manufacturer to make more money all right, but it does not follow that the manufacturer pays better wages to his employees. He takes advantage of the tariff and boosts the cost of living so that he can pocket all the proceeds and leave the employees to struggle alone on their former salaries. The breakage at the second joint of course puts the third link out business. The employees, now receiving higher wages, can purchase more produce, the farm and the farmer's home market fails to experience the anticipated boom. Meantime both farmer and mechanic are forced to pay the higher prices for the products of the goods. The net result is that the manufacturer wastes fat on the increased prices he is enabled to charge the mechanic and the farmer, and these gentlemen are paid less for the same excellent reason. At the same time the manufacturer, having failed to increase the wages of the mechanic, the mechanic is unable to increase the home market of the farmer. Both these parties therefore have increased their expenses without increasing their revenue, and have joined hands in enriching the third party at their expense, but he has failed to return the compliment.

To one not hopelessly infatuated with the protection theory, the course of wisdom would be to let the burden of the excise duty fall on the manufacturer and to let him bear the burden of the farmer and the mechanic and let the manufacturer shift for himself. Curiously enough, however, the remedy Australia will adopt is not to lighten the burdens, but to increase them; not to lessen the burden of the manufacturer but to multiply them. An excuse duty is now to be levied on all goods manufactured in Australia; manufacturers whose employees receive fair treatment will have the duty remitted, but those who do not will retain it. The result of this of course will be that the manufacturer will add the amount of the excise duty to the price of his products, the protective tariff enabling him to do so successfully. Then, unless nothing is done to return it to him he gains to that amount by the transaction. At the worst, the manufacturer will make as much as he makes today, in all other cases he will make more, but the burden of the excise duty. And whether the manufacturer remains in the hands of the Government or returns to the manufacturer, it will come not from the pockets of those who have profited by protection, but from those at whose expense protection has enlarged the market, including the mechanic whose wages have not been advanced and the farmer whose home market has not been increased.

The Montreal Star, which may be read on the front page of the next issue from the protectionist stand, describes how this ingenious invention is supposed to work. It says: "Of course, where some of the manufacturers of a special line of goods are treated fairly, and others are not to escape the excise duty, they will soon capture the entire market and drive those handicapped by the excise to the wall." Unfortunately this is precisely what cannot be expected to occur for the manufacturer is not the gentleman who will be "handicapped" by the excise. He will politely but firmly add it to his drafts upon his customers. If the Government does not take it from him he will be the windfall to his competitor. Then he will still make the profit he makes to-day. If his profit to-day is the same profit drive him to the wall tomorrow? And if it do so would this benefit his enemy? The answer is yes, when he has grown rich, when he is now to be permitted to exploit fresh. It has yet to be shown where the pinch is found which will force him to share the benefits of protection with his workmen.

ASSAULTING THE CREAMRIES.

The Edmonton Journal has been conducting a campaign against what it is pleased to call the creamries. They combine, alleging that the results of the Government operation of these institutions has been to increase the price of butter. It contends that the product of the creamries should be taxed at a small rate, and a small lot to retail dealers in order that the price may be reduced, and even condemns the creamery product because this has resulted in increasing the local prices.

The conclusion is correct; the Government management of creameries is a kind of socialism, but it has increased the price of butter. The creamries should be taxed at a small rate, and a small lot to retail dealers in order that the price may be reduced, and even condemns the creamery product because this has resulted in increasing the local prices.

The conclusion is correct; the Government management of creameries is a kind of socialism, but it has increased the price of butter. That was what it was intended to do. It did not do so because it would have failed in the purpose, and the only purpose, of its inception, which was what was expected to do. That is to say, so much as that it has fulfilled the expectation under which it was adopted. If to-day the farmers of Alberta are getting more for their butter than they did ten years ago, the blame lies not on the Government, but on the fact that the market held the creamery business. That the farmers are getting more, and that the cause of their getting more, is the Government's responsibility of the creamries, the Journal is witness. And it is because the Government management of creameries has enabled the farmers to get more for their butter that the Journal condemns the manner of that operation and demands a change of management for the avowed purpose of preventing them getting so much.

ON THE SIDE.

An offer of $5 for Calgary debentures does not denote any perceptible rift in the financial cloud.

Chicago bank robbers secured $2,000, a cheering assurance that not all of Uncle Sam's monetary institutions have gone down in the storm.

The Portuguese capital is now enjoying the periodical diversion provided for sovereigns who try reign without the assistance of parliaments.

Major Griesbach continues to honor the Bulletin with communications signed himself, and appears in a measure disappointed that the Bulletin has not manifested an equal concern for His Worship—very interesting, indeed, when one considers he has only to say, "I am sorry no offence," that it endeavors to treat subjects in proportion to their public importance, and cannot undertake to vary the rule ever to gratify His Worship. Nor does there appear to be any full rendering called for by the Bulletin.

An excuse duty is now to be levied on all goods manufactured in Australia; manufacturers whose employees receive fair treatment will have the duty remitted, but those who do not will retain it. The result of this of course will be that the manufacturer will add the amount of the excise duty to the price of his products, the protective tariff enabling him to do so successfully. FLOCKING BACK TO THE FOLD: O'Brien, Hayes and Others Flocking Back to Nationalist Party.

London, Nov. 26.—Irish Nationalist unity appears to be on the eve of accomplishment. Communications have been received from Michael Davitt, the party and William O'Brien, member of parliament for Cork, in speaking of the Bill, said that the party expressed the belief that all the Nationalist representatives soon would be returning to the fold.

Timothy Healy, Nationalist member of parliament for the north division of Dublin, said that after securing his approval of the suggested terms of the agreement, but requested that the party be allowed to remain in the party should the decision of the general election.

It is understood that the terms of the proposed agreement are that the chief work of the coming session of the House of Commons will be to secure the passing of the Old University Bill, the Argentine situation in Ireland should be a great matter of interest to the party and the party's efforts to secure an amendment to the land acts should be given up. The party's efforts to secure a bill to prohibit the sale of land to foreigners should be abandoned.

SPORTING NEWS

C. A. U. IN A FIX.

Montreal, Nov. 26.—To a row it is apparent that the Amateur Athletic Federation has given birth in the Dominion. And if the truth were known, despite the apparent unanimity of the members of the permanent old body, is losing some steam over the same insignificant A.A.F.C. This small group has decided that the A.U. is in a very poor predicament, as the result of blacklisting all those who took part in the last National Handicap race, for it was planned to hand over a strong team from Toronto and蒙特利尔 to the Marathon at Victoria, N.Y., this day, Nov. 28. The ban places on the list by the A.A.F.C. and the C.A.U. know it. Briefly speaking, it means a still greater winning break between the A.U. and the C.A.U., and a further estrangement between the former and the Federation.

STRONG SKATING ALLIANCE.

New York, Nov. 26.—An alliance was formed between the Amateur Athletic Union and the International Skating Union, which will bring strict control both roller and ice skating. This matter was brought up at the annual meeting of the skating committee, headed by Ward S. Weeks, who was appointed to look into the matter. The association of the A.U. and the C.A.U. and the alliance was granted. The International Skating Union is composed of the American, Canadian and English skating associations, and will bring about the racing here. The A.A.U. is glad to shift the burden of organizing the skating sport, particularly the burden of controlling the roller skaters. It is understood that the C.A.U. will take care of the roller men with a firm hand.

JOE KELLY IN TROUBLE.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 26.—Manager Joe Kelly, of the Huron Bay Club, may quit his post as manager of the Ottawa to Boston as manager of the Nationals. When he and President Dorey, of the Boston club, signed a three-year contract three months ago, Kelly was offered an automatic to Dorey that no term would be provided for a three years' contract. Kelly is half way inclined to quit, half way inclined to stay. He is not a political, which at present offers a particularly attractive field, his father-in-law, Mr. John J. Murphy, being a prominent Democratic leader in Baltimore.

SHOKE FOR THE "PEG."

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Jimmy Shoke, who played left wing for Ottawa last winter, turned down an offer yesterday to play with the Stanley Cup holders this season. Shoke, who is now 22, will play tomorrow or Saturday for Winnipeg, where he will play with Bill Clever's Stratford team. He was offered a $1,000 a month, which was then also offered to Montreal. His friends are surprised at the offer, and he is not sure what to do. His friends say he will play with the Stratford team this winter. They claim he received no show for the eleven in fast company, and he has been offered a place with the magnet. Tom Smith is to take a whole team with him.

Hans Wagner looks into the National League for the first time since 1887. The past season was therefore his eleventh in fast company, and he is not sure what to do. He is under the doctor's care to get his nerves back in shape.

Charles Schmidt, the Detroit catcher, is complete victim to the strain of the pennant race and the scramble for the world's honour. He was heartbroken when his team lost the pennant, and he wouldn't go as aimed. Just now he is under the doctor's care to get his nerves back in shape.

Duthul will play hockey during the coming winter. Arrangements have been made for him to play with the Ottawa club, and he is to go to the services this winter. They claim he received no show for the other members of the team, and he has been offered a place with the Stratford team. Tom Smith, playing manager of the Columbus American Association, has half time and is familiarly known as "Clymer" Shoke.

DAYSLAND TEAM ORGANIZED.

Daysland, Nov. 26.—Another in the ranks of the hockey teams held at the Angus on Friday night. The committee reported that Mayor Day had given permission to use the school grounds for the rink. The playing officers were elected: Honorary president, E. J. Dunnigan; vice-president, H. Bent; treasurer, W. G. Gilchrist; manager, J. W. McMiller; mascot, Dennis Zarczowski. Sticks and pucks have been ordered from Calgary, to be ready for the first of the week.

OTTAWA COLLEGE WILL NOT PLAY.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The Ottawa College football team has turned down the challenge of the Peterboro team, champions of the Senior O.F.U., to a game to be played at Peterboro on Dec. 1, championship of Canada. The Intercollegiate champions have had a hard season, and as they are not in the best of health, in such a game they do not see any advantage in playing. They need not fear that they will not do well, nor do they care to make any chances with half of the team in the injured list.

TROUBLE IN TORONTO CAMP.

Toronto, Nov. 26.—There will be no regular camp for the Ontario team at least that is the present outlook. The men behind St. George's and Martindale have two teams from each camp to form the composite team, and held a series of meetings, at which it was decided to abandon the plan. The camp was to be held at St. George's, and the team would consist of the two former teams. Mr. Bert Shortt, who was elected manager of the camp, said that the reason for the break-up was directly due to dissatisfaction existing among the players and executive members, and rather than have the camp go on, any misunderstandings existing among the players, which were liable to cause trouble, it was mutually agreed to drift apart.

Mr. Shortt said that efforts were made to get the camp together again, but the engagement has not yet been completed.

Owen Moran, the British featherweight boxer, who beat the Canadian Francisco for the belt with Franklin Neil, says the "Gunner" Moir weighed 130 lbs. when he came to England. Moran also says that Moir remained in England after his victory and continued to fight in the coming bout and claims that the gunner is training with more strength than himself, each fight.

The 22 to 0 defeat of Harvard by Dartmouth was a sore touch. An account of the game, which was witnessed by the Harvard eleven this year, the football world is wondering whether President Eliot will come to the defense of the abolition of the game. There are numerous small institutions which understand that it will be follied to have Eliot tell them that he will make a different view of the situation; also that Harvard will insist upon having him back into the coaching system, and once again put Harvard in the position it had in

John D. March, the Winnipeg professional, thinks that he can beat Sharbinius in the final. He has been in the city, and wants to meet the Englishman again for a purse of $500. March says that he will be in the arena at Winnipeg on a rink track, which will be put down on the ice. The money will be split between the two, and will be accepted at once, and the race will be off within eight days of the time the purse is paid out. The race is now in Buffalo, where he would like to get a match before going east for the engagements which have been made for him there.

Ottawa is worried because it fears that the new professional league in Ontario is making big offers to eastern players, and that it is to the benefit of the Huron, while Berlin and Grappling are said to have lined up to the tune of $1,000 and $1,200 respectively. Now aren't the rink managers of the Canadian game getting their share of the gate money? The players will be in need if they have enough left to buy a meal, and the eastern players have not even started in Ontario, that these eastern players didn't use it to boast salaries around home?

M.A.A.A. $7,000 TO THE GOOD.

Montreal, Nov. 26.—The semi-annual meeting of the M.A.A.A. passed off yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Royal York, and the voting on the motions did not provide more than a tame debate. The treasurer, Frank L. Gillies, who though made up roughly, gave a general idea of how things were going to be done. The club has been making money this summer, the lacrosse club having also made a considerable sum. Five hundred dollars were voted to the credit of the M.A.A.A. and the C.A.U. It is known it. Briefly speaking, it means a still greater winning break between the A.U. and the C.A.U., and a further estrangement between the former and the Federation.

SPORTING BREVITIES.

There have been eleven killed and seventy-seven injured playing American football this year.

A forty-horse power motor car broke the world's record for a twenty-four non-stop run in Australia. The man, though handicapped by fog, ran 777 miles.

Hal Chase, the New York American, has broken the record for the distance that formerly controlled the racing here. The A.A.U. is glad to shift the burden of controlling the roller skaters. It is understood that the C.A.U. will take care of the roller men with a firm hand.

THE LYRIC THEATRE.

Montreal, Nov. 26.—Ernie Russell, being looked upon as the present day boxer, split. Ernie Russell and his wife, whether or not he is going to play with the Wanderers, and he refuses to tell, but is beginning to very much talk of the transfer of the Wanderers to the United States. He does not expect him to play with them, as they are making no effort for other players, and he has announced on the basis of authority that they have seen some very remarkable amateur players lately. Jimmie, the famous Ottawa player, one of the seven Smith brothers, and perhaps Jimmie's father, are to play with the Wanderers.

Mr. Smith himself is authority for that statement and under ordinary circumstances he would be the most possible authority. It is also stated that the Wanderers are trying to get hold of Tom Phillips, the famous boxer, and the services of 200 men and 100 pairs of wires to bring him here.

Henry Shore, who played left end for the Wanderers, has been down as often yesterday from the Wanderers of Montreal, to play with the Stanley Cup holders, the Stratford team, and will be back after from Montreal, but this was also reported.

His friends are surprised that he came to the Stratford team, as he has been offered a place with the Stratford team.

Shore is a relative of Bill Clymer, playing manager of the Columbus Americans, and he is to play with the Stratford team, and is to be known as "Clymer" Shore.

Saturday night, he played senior Montreal Rugby this year, last night, said that he will play hockey with the Stratford team, and will be back after from "Marty" Walsh, of Kingston, who is also appearing in Montreal and will likely appear on the Stratford line-up.

Tom Smith is to take a whole team with him. Tom Smith is to take a whole team with him.

WANTS 100 MEN.

Superintendent A. W. Gilmour of the Waterloo Department has discovered the fact that there are approximately five unemployed men in the city at present. He has at present $800 to spend on men, and can take care of 100 more if they were available. There is a large amount of work to be done in the department, and Superintendent is engaged in installing house services on Sixteenth street, and in the same way on every street on every street west of Sixteenth street.

"I could use one hundred men without any difficulty," said Superintendent Gilmour. "The job is not hard, though, and I am told that on the way there is a grave possibility we will not be able to get all that we want to do."

It is the desire of the department's object in attempting to install all the services applies for is in order that a large amount may be secured by the department.

AN EXCITING CASE.

Constable Horsey, chief of the city police force, had, last evening, one of the most exciting and precipitous cases of his career in the history of the force. He, however, managed to capture his man and bring him back in safety.

About half past five a report reached the police office that a man was breaking into the hotel room of the immigration hall on Jasper extension. Officer Horsey went to the spot and found the intruder, a large, abashed foreigner. Just as he was about to stretch forth his hand to make the man a prisoner, he made a dash for liberty and jumped over the bank about four feet high to the iron fence in the immigration hall. In an instant the constable was in pursuit and despite the darkness, the bushes, the thorn bushes, the brambles, the rubbish debris and holes along the lower part of the bank, he pursued the intruder until the bridge was reached that the constable overtook his quarry and he, in his desire to escape, was so panic-stricken that he was shot and while recovering from the bullet wound he had a pocket knife and he had already cut a key chain from his belt. The key chain from his belt was broken.

Mr. Nankin was in the stone chamber in the basement of the immigration hall on Jasper extension when looking up for the night.

Grant Lockman, bartender at the Alberta, had said that Robert had sold him jewelry, consisting of a locket and he had also a vest containing a quantity of coins. When he afterwards took him up the stairs of the Edmonton hotel and landed him in the basement, he had covered with mud and dirt, but triumphant.

The man gave the name of George Stansbury. He was arranged before Magistrate Cowan this morning on a charge of breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony. The lawyer for the prosecution said he had been misinformed, and the witness said he had been to the door of the Edmonton hotel and landed him in the basement, but he had the revolver to get it out of him.

Presented Clerk with Brooch.

Gertude Waite, one of the clerks in Mr. Nankin's store, said that while
